

John Wilson MBE honoured with new rod licence images

Angling legend's favourite fish to feature in striking image on new rod licence

Branching out into agroforestry

A hundred trees have been planted on upland research farmland run by Scotland's Rural College to demonstrate the benefits of agroforestry.

528 trees planted along a Suffolk River

Environment Agency officers have helped plant more than 500 new trees along the River Gipping to help restore it.

Press release: Flood risk begins to recede but public are warned to be vigilant

Despite lower rainfall amounts forecast for this week, communities are reminded to check their flood risk and remain prepared to take action if needed.

Speaking out about strangles

Speaking out about strangles – an infectious equine disease – is the focus of a new national week of action launched by SRUC in partnership with some of the UK's largest horse welfare organisations.