

Study shows decline in rural gender pay gap

Researchers in SRUC's Rural Policy Centre have completed a scoping study on the gender pay gap in rural Scotland.

News story: New Fisheries Minister celebrates International Year of Salmon

A project to help the revival of salmon on one of England's key rivers has been officially opened by Fisheries Minister Robert Goodwill today.

Press release: 3km oil slick threatened local beauty spot.

A serious pollution incident led to a 3km oil slick near the Potteric Carr Nature Reserve, Doncaster.

Speech: Back to the Future

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency speech to Futurebuild 2019

Calculator adds to SRUC success

An online tool which has helped thousands of UK farms to reduce their carbon footprint has won a major industry award.