

Celebrating a spatial relationship – BGS loan maps as part of centennial celebrations for Korean Geological Survey

The British Geological Survey (BGS) have provided historical maps and reports on the geology of Korea as part of the centennial celebrations for the foundation of the Korean Institute of Geoscience and Mineral Resources (KIGAM).

Celebrating a spatial relationship – BGS loan maps as part of centennial celebrations for Korean Geological Survey

The BGS has provided historical maps and reports on the geology of Korea as part of the centennial celebrations for the foundation of the Korean Institute of Geoscience and Mineral Resources (KIGAM).

Seismicity at Preston New Road, October 2018

Since hydraulic fracturing operations started at Preston New Road, near Blackpool, some earthquakes have been detected close to the area of operations. Details of Seismicity at Preston New Road, October 2018.

BGS has achieved registration to ISO 45001:2018 at its Keyworth site

BSi has provided the BGS with independent third party certification for the Keyworth facility.

British Geological Survey one of first organisations to be awarded international health and safety standard

The British Geological Survey (BGS) has become one of the first organisations to achieve the new health and safety standard: the International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO) 45001:2018 Occupational Health and Safety System (OHS) standard.