

Straight from the horse's mouth

Equine Studies students got a chance to learn straight from the horse's mouth on a study tour of the Scottish Borders.

Protein replacement poses challenge

Capacities for completely replacing animal protein in the human diet are limited and would require "major changes" in the structure of global agricultural food systems, according to new research.

Press release: West Midlands anglers ordered to pay over £111,000 for licence offences

Nearly 400 anglers were prosecuted in 2018/19

Speech: A different philosophy: why our thinking on flooding needs to change faster than the climate

Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of the Environment Agency
Brunel University, 9 May 2019

Press release: Environment Agency removes more invasive non-native fish

Topmouth Gudgeon and invasive fish has been removed from a Leicester lake