

Press release: Sewage pollution leads to £200,000 restorative charity donation

Yorkshire Water offered a charity donation to resolve an investigation into a sewage pollution event at the Pissy Beds Drain near Hatfield Colliery

---

New EU-funded research to focus on best practice for subsurface projects

A three-year international project (SECURE – Subsurface Evaluation of CCS and Unconventional Risks) focusing on best practice for developers engaged in subsurface energy projects is under way with dedicated funding from the European Union.

---

Press release: Isle of Axholme to benefit from £35m flood protection investment

The work to improve a pumping station will help protect 15,000 homes, plus habitat, businesses and infrastructure

---

Driving ambition puts Zambian golfer to the fore

A former golf student from Scotland's Rural College is aiming to take on the best in the world after becoming Zambia's first PGA Professional.

---

Passport to horse health

Students demonstrated their riding and horse care skills when Rural Affairs Minister Mairi Gougeon MSP visited SRUC's Oatridge campus to highlight new legislation to improve equine identification.