

Birdies and bees

Birdie, eagle and albatross are common golfing terms, but students at Scotland's Rural College have been learning the importance of considering both birds and bees in their golf course designs.

Conversation turns to uplands

The Head of Integrated Land Management at SRUC will be among the speakers at a special event focussing on Britain's uplands.

'Untapped potential' – opportunity for developing women in agriculture

Developing the role of women is key to the survival of Scottish agriculture, according to a Scottish Government Taskforce.

Untapped potential' – opportunity for developing women in agriculture

Developing the role of women is key to the survival of Scottish agriculture, according to a Scottish Government Taskforce.

£6m allocated to vets to contain

cattle disease

Nearly £6 million in funding has been allocated to vets in England as part of a campaign to tackle a highly contagious cattle disease.