

Niall the very model of a modern apprentice

A rural skills apprentice at SRUC has won the coveted overall winner award at this year's Awards for Land-based and Aquaculture Skills (ALBAS).

Call for action on equine disease

A national week of action encouraging people to speak out and challenge the stigma of the UK's most prevalent equine disease is returning this year.

Study highlights feeding for fertility

Metabolic profile testing could help inform farmers' decisions on beef cattle nutrition and improve calving performance.

Magic beans

Growing peas and beans and precision farming are among the most effective measures in reducing greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions on farms, new research has found.

Microbiome science aims to tackle biggest challenges

New research and innovation collaboration networks could help to make the most of the UK's world-renowned microbiome expertise.