

ESMA appoints new chair of its Corporate Reporting Standing Committee

The CRSC's mandate includes contributing to and/or monitoring of regulatory developments as well as establishing appropriate supervisory convergence on issues relating to accounting (under International Financial Reporting Standards – IFRS), periodic financial reporting, non-financial reporting, electronic reporting developments and storage of regulated information (in the relevant areas under the CRSC's remit) as well as audit.

The CRSC's mandate includes contributing to and/or monitoring of regulatory developments as well as establishing appropriate supervisory convergence on issues relating to accounting (under International Financial Reporting Standards – IFRS), periodic financial reporting, non-financial reporting, electronic reporting developments and storage of regulated information (in the relevant areas under the CRSC's remit) as well as audit.

The standing committees are expert groups drawn from ESMA staff and Member States' national competent authorities for securities markets regulation, and are responsible for the development of policy in their respective areas.

The appointment is effective immediately and will run until February 2022.

Further information:

Solveig Kleiveland

Senior Communications Officer

☎ +33 (1)58 36 64 27

@ press@esma.europa.eu