

Ethics and Integrity Commission to drive up standards across the public sector

A new Ethics and Integrity Commission will be established to drive up standards in public life, delivering on a key manifesto commitment.