

European partners urged to develop sanctions to smash people smuggling gangs

The Foreign Secretary will press partners to replicate Britain's world-first plans for a sanctions aimed at organised immigration crime gangs.