“Digital economy & society in the EU” – New digital publication presenting our online world in figures

Surfing, chatting, online shopping are among our everyday activities that use information and communication technologies (ICT), such as computers, laptops or smartphones. Nowadays, we spend a considerable part of our time online for various reasons, whether at work, at school or university, at home or on the move. Often we depend on our digital devices to stay in contact with family and friends, to get directions to shops, hotels and restaurants or to check our bank accounts.

ESMA publishes 2016 Annual Report

In 2016, ESMA continued to make progress in its mission of enhancing investor protection and promoting stable and orderly financial markets through its four activities of:

- assessing risks to investors, markets and financial stability;
- creating a single rulebook;
- promoting supervisory convergence; and

- supervising credit rating agencies and trade repositories.

The Report contains details about ESMA's work under each of these activities, with a focus on the key achievements in each of those areas.
