

Experienced regeneration leader appointed to key role at Homes England as agency embarks on pivotal year of delivery for local communities

John Reid will join government's housing and regeneration agency in March 2026 to lead new national hub, working hand-in-hand with regional teams, as strategic plan comes into action.