

Exploring HK through creativity

The Community Record Company, a community-based programme, has invited people to explore the unique locales of Sai Ying Pun, Sham Shui Po and To Kwa Wan through music and video production.

News.gov.hk spoke to the Community Curator and participants of the Sham Shui Po Ensemble project to discover how the community provided inspiration for their creative endeavours.

The story appears on news.gov.hk (September 22) in text and video format.