

Fairer taxes for high-value homes

The government has launched a consultation on the details of the new High Value Council Tax Surcharge, to make the system fairer for households.