

Families to receive letters confirming £150 off energy bills

More than quarter of a million families to receive letters confirming they will get £150 off their energy bills this winter through the Warm Home Discount