

Families to save hundreds of pounds in major homebuying overhaul

First-time buyers set to save money when buying a home and timelines reduced with a new consultation launched by the Government.