

Farmers backed to tackle endemic diseases with more funded vet visits

Government funded vet visits to now include health assessments for multiple herds on the same farm helping to support better health and profitability within the sector.