

Final Recommendations for the national memorial to Queen Elizabeth II announced to coincide with the centenary of her birth

The recommendations made by the Queen Elizabeth Memorial Committee, including the masterplan for a permanent memorial in St James's Park, London, a new charitable trust for regenerating community assets across the United Kin...