

First ever independent Armed Forces Champion gets the 'royal seal'

His Majesty The King has formally approved legislation to appoint an independent Armed Forces Commissioner, in a landmark step in delivering manifesto commitment to renew the nation's contract with those who serve.