

First Foreign Secretary visit to Pakistan since 2021 as UK pushes for fragile ceasefire to become durable peace

The UK Government welcomed the sustained ceasefire between Pakistan and India, both important partners to the UK, with the Foreign Secretary asserting the importance of continued stability for the region during a visit to P...