

First-time buyers top of the agenda for new Economic Secretary

New Economic Secretary and Housing Minister will host major banks in the Treasury tomorrow as part of plans to create an economy that works for working people.