

Fish kill incident costs Worcestershire firm over £1 million

A company has made a financial contribution of over £1 million to come into compliance and to deal with the effects of a pollution incident in 2018.