

Five landlords fail to meet RSH's consumer standards

Five landlords have been given C3 gradings in regulatory judgements published today by the Regulator of Social Housing (RSH), which means there are serious failings and they need to make significant improvements.