

Football charity trustees "let down players" after £2.5m is recovered by regulator

In a highly critical report published today (19 May 2026), the Charity Commission's inquiry finds serious mismanagement at the Players Foundation (previously known as the Professional Footballers' Association Charity, ch...