

Football Governance Act becomes law in historic moment for English football

Historic Football Governance Act receives Royal Assent, establishing new Independent Football Regulator to safeguard the future of the national sport