

Foreign Secretary statement on International Development: 19 March

The Foreign Secretary made a statement to Parliament on the Government's revised approach to international development and Official Development Assistance (ODA) allocations.