

Former M&S Chief Executive hired to spearhead Government drive to help young people into work

A business leader with decades of experience at the most senior levels has been appointed to drive forward the Government's Youth Guarantee and ensure all young people have the chance to earn or learn.