

Former Northeye prison site in Bexhill handed to Homes England for new homes

The former HMP Northeye site in Bexhill has been formally transferred from the Home Office to Homes England, marking a major step forward for delivering new homes and regeneration on this long-identified development site.