

Free speech rules to protect academic freedom come into force

New legal duties on universities and colleges come into force, as government delivers Plan for Change to restore integrity of higher education.