

Free travel and new routes: government's bus revolution hits another gear

£3 million funding boost will help 6 mayoral authorities set up bus franchising to improve travel for passengers across England.