

Friends of Wighton – latest update

With thanks to Sheena Wellington, here's the latest update from Friends of Wighton with its next event tomorrow :

Wighton Heritage Centre, Central Library
Wednesday 4th September : 1.15pm – 1.45pm.
Lunchtime Recital with Claire Garabedian, cello

Dr Claire Garabedian, is a professional cellist specialising in historical performance, a Certified Music Practitioner (USA), and an experienced researcher focusing on the effects of the arts on people with dementia/people.

She has presented her work throughout the UK, Europe and the USA, including at the Hay Literature Festival and on BBC Radio 4.

Claire will play an engaging combination of familiar and perhaps unfamiliar classical and Scottish music.

Admission free but donations welcome.
