

Fund mentors empower youths

Child Development Fund volunteer mentors are improving the lives of youngsters and empowering them to pursue their dreams by sharing their life experiences to help the next generation plan for a brighter future.

News.gov.hk spoke to the mentors to learn about how they reach out to the youngsters to help them realise their potential and broaden their horizons.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (May 26) in both text and video format.