

Getting things done – Annfield Street

Residents have expressed concern to me that the temporary barriers round Scottish Water's contractor's works in Annfield Street have fallen over, partially blocking the road – see below :

I have drawn this to the attention of Scottish Water and requested these be reinstated and properly secured as soon as possible.