

Getting things done – Magdalen Green #dundeewestend

Recently, the Friends of Magdalen Green highlighted to me the extent of overgrown foliage from the Network Rail land adjacent to the rail line protruding onto the Green – see right.

I took this up with Network Rail and am grateful for its prompt and comprehensive response in thinning out the vegetation.