

Getting things done – Newhall Gardens #dundeewestend

I am grateful to the residents who last week highlighted to me that, in the heavy rain, a large part of a tree in Newhall Gardens came down, landing on the central grass area.

I drew this to the attention of the council's forestry team who very promptly removed this last Thursday.