

Getting things done – Roseangle #dundeewestend

There has recently been significant flooding at the south end of Roseangle – see photo below.

I was therefore in touch with the Roads Maintenance Partnership to get this rather recurring issue resolved and was promised that a gully machine would be used to ensure the gullies are cleared and run free.

