

Getting things done – Seabraes #dundeewestend

I am grateful to the residents who recently highlighted to me that the pillars at Seabraes where the lemmings statues are have unfortunately been vandalised with graffiti.

I raised this with the City Council's environment team requesting that the graffiti is removed and pleased to say this was done towards the end of last week.