

Getting things done – West Marketgait #dundeewestend

I recently received complaints from residents about the slippery state of the pavement in West Marketgait near the junction with Hawkhill – see photo – caused by leaves.

I have reported this to the council's Neighbourhood Services seeking these being cleaned up – along with similar complaints in other streets such as Roseangle.