

Golf Management students benefit from R&A visit

Golf Management Students recently attended a presentation by The R&A about concepts of sustainable development and a green economy for the golf industry.