

Government accelerates drive to protect 30% of England's land for nature by 2030

Government sets out clear path to the international agreed target of protecting and improving 30% of land by 2030