

Government acts on food insecurity and affordability with £10 million to put good food within reach

Almost £10 million will be invested in 45 communities across England to improve access to healthy, affordable food in areas with the highest levels of deprivation