

Government acts on top business concern and cuts electricity bills for thousands of manufacturers by up to 25%

The Government launches a consultation on the British Industrial Competitiveness Scheme to cut electricity bills for 7,000 manufacturers and boost finance access with a £4 billion British Business Bank plan.