

Government ambition to end sewage discharges into Windermere

Environment Secretary Steve Reed will today (Monday 10 March) set out government ambition to end sewage discharged into Windermere