

Government announces Race Equality Engagement Group to break down barriers to racial equality

The views of ethnic minority people are being placed at the heart of government decision making following the establishment of the Race Equality Engagement Group (REEG).