

Government announces raft of new policies and major investment to boost profits for farmers

Environment Secretary to announce reform package to boost farmers' profitability as part of the Plan for Change