

Government announces support for flood-hit farmers

Flood-hit farmers in northern England will be able to apply for up to £25,000 in government grants to help them get back on their feet.