

Government ceases to provide meal spaces in community halls and community centres

In view of the resumption of daytime dine-in services in catering business premises and the decrease in public demand for meal spaces in community halls and community centres, the Home Affairs Department will cease opening the 19 community halls or community centres in 18 districts for members of the public to take their own meal to have lunch from tomorrow (August 2).