

Government commits to introducing mandatory ethnicity and disability pay gap reporting for large employers

Minority ethnic groups and disabled people are to benefit as the government commits to introducing mandatory ethnicity and disability pay-gap reporting for large employers.