

Government confirms traffic light list ahead of cautious return to international travel

International leisure travel from England no longer illegal from 17 May 2021 but strict border control measures will remain in place.