

Government fuels NHS innovation to unlock billions in growth

The government updates NHS IP guidance for the first time in 23 years, cutting red tape so innovations reach patients faster and boost the UK's economic growth